VYSA Report:

President, Tom Halstead announced that Duke Arnold had been selected as the VYSA Volunteer of the Year. Mohammad Bennani and Gail Smith were selected as the VYSA coaches of the year.

Competition Chairman:

Tom Halstead reported that Carey Ross Aliff has stepped down as the Competition Chairman for SEVYSA. A replacement for Carey will be voted on at the January 2005 SEVYSA meeting. This person will serve for the remainder of the SEVYSA year. If interested in this position, please contact Tom Halstead by email at tom@3bubbas.com

Rules & Discipline: No report.

Administrator's Report:

Denise Edwards announced that seventy (70) individuals had signed up for the VYSA workshop in February in Richmond. There are still openings available, so please contact Denise as soon as possible to secure a room for your coaches. There are also hotel rooms at the Marriott still available. SEVYSA has reserved fifty (50) rooms, and the assignments will be done at the January SEVYSA meeting.

SEVYSA is offering to pay for young adults, age 16 or older and adults to attend a free referee-certification course. There is further information on the website, and an application is available for signing up. There are fifty (50) openings for the free certification, and this is being determined on a first come, first served basis.

Denise reported that the December rain out matches would not be rescheduled again. The final standings for the Fall 2004 season will be available on 10 January 2005.

Unfinished Business:

The Spring SEVYSA Calendar for 2005 was distributed to all the team representatives and adopted. This will also be available on the SEVYSA website. The Spring SEVYSA playing season will begin on 3 April 2005 and end on 22 May 2005.

New Business:

There will be a declaration page on the website for the Spring Registration of all SEVYSA teams. The application will be available on 21 December 2004.

President, Tom Halstead, adjourned the December SEVYSA meeting at 8:05PM.

Announcements:
